Meridieth and Kissinger promoted to Senior Vice President

GALLATIN, Tenn.— Sumner Bank & Trust President and CEO, Keith Hatley, is proud to announce the promotion of Commercial Lenders Haley Meridieth and Jesse Kissinger from Vice President to Senior Vice President.

Meridieth was one of the first people to be employed by Sumner Bank & Trust when it was being organized in 2005. She has held various positions at the bank in her 15 years such as Customer Service Representative, Consumer Lender, and Branch Manager before becoming a Commercial Lender/ Business Development Officer.

Kissinger joined the Sumner Bank & Trust team in April of 2015 as a Vice President and Commercial Lender/ Business Development Officer in the Indian Lake branch. He has been a vital part of expanding our Hendersonville and surrounding markets. “Both Jesse and Haley have been key to the bank’s success over the past 3 years. Both have demonstrated their abilities as not only lenders but leaders as well. Both are deserving of this promotion.” stated Hatley.

Sumner Bank & Trust is honored to have both of these individuals helping to lead our team.
